

Role: Communication internship on new & sustainable land use (with possibility for a research/graduation project)
Timing: 32 – 40 hours per week
Location: Amsterdam, the Netherlands

Healthy landscapes and water systems are the basis of our life. They provide food, water, clean air, a stable climate, biodiversity, good health, security and happiness. However, one fourth of the world's land mass is seriously degraded from centuries of human activity. The good news is that this can be reversed. Commonland's mission is to create an investable large-scale landscape restoration industry, based on sustainable business models, delivering 4 returns: return of inspiration, return of natural capital, return of social capital and return of financial capital. We aim to restore large-scale degraded ecosystems worldwide, by actively involving investors, companies and entrepreneurs in landscape restoration.

Commonland is an entrepreneurial, impact-driven, not-for-profit organization with an international team of business developers and experts in the fields of landscape restoration, finance and communication.

For our Amsterdam office, we are looking for an enthusiastic Marketing and Communications intern with excellent communications, analytical and creative skills to join our dynamic team.

For more information, see www.commonland.com

Responsibilities include:

To support our communication activities, we are looking for an enthusiastic and creative intern. The intern will carry out the following activities:

- Support the communications department with brand management, communications and PR of Commonland Foundation and its subsidiaries;
- Assist in further building an online presence;
- Support in the development of materials and media productions related to the mission of Commonland;
- Assist in the development and execution – where appropriate with support of external experts – communication fundraising and marketing materials, including website(s) and brochures;
- Maintain and monitor social media accounts/platforms;

Opportunity for research on stakeholders, online presence or any other subject (up for discussion).

We are looking for candidates with the following profile:

- You are an enthusiastic, creative, social media savvy person, with a study background in communications, journalism, marketing or likewise;
- A feel for sustainable land use, (organic) agriculture, nature, animal husbandry;

- You are able to connect with people from different backgrounds (farmers, entrepreneurs, researchers, etc.);
- Preferably, you have experience with managing social media platforms;
- Ability to work independently and proactively; hands- on mentality, willing to pick up what needs to be done in an innovative start-up organization;
- Excellent writing and communication skills;
- At least 3 months available, preferably longer.

We offer a great working environment in our office situated in Amsterdam NDSM, a lot of room to take your own initiative and an allowance of EUR 300 per month. For more information or to send an application, please contact us at: communications@commonland.com. Please indicate from what date you are available. Applications can be submitted before July 13th 2018.